To whom it may concern

Dear sir/madam

RE: Reference Letter for Make it Happen:

I confirm that I, Jared Denis Jones, am a practicing attorney of the High Court admitted in 2010. I have had the opportunity commandeering the services of Make it Happen and confirm the services therein to be of and excellent quality and highly recommend same to any individual or company seeking to optimise their productivity and profit margin.

In particular, the following services rendered by Make it Happen significantly improved my productivity in my respective workplace:

1. Identifying key areas for improvement of productivity by way of habit analysis and time management;
2. Realistic and progressive expectation and goal setting and development of methodology to realise those goals and expectations;
3. Personal analysis and development;
4. Identifying niche areas in the market applicable to an individual and/or business for purposes of strategizing personal brand and/or business brand development; and
5. Development of marketing strategies for the purposes of client portfolio development and for interpersonal development in the workplace.

Please feel free to contact me on my cell phone on 082 497 5356 to discuss my experiences should you have any queries regarding same

Kind regards
